A long time ago, the humans and elves fought the last battle, and merged. The nature worshipers and the conjurers worked together, and formed the first land, The Lands Between, where they lived in harmony with nature. After many years, the race of elves died off, and the race of humans slowly grew. As the years passed, many humans lost hope and abandoned the Lands Between. There are three races living in the Lands Between. The humans, the goblins, and the elves. The reason why the races live together is because they were sent here by fate. The three races are now plagued by two evils: The elden, a race of elves that was left alone and became corrupted, and the dungeon, a place of the goblins where they keep their dead idols. One day, a small group of elves was sucked into the dungeon, and the law of the land was stricken. A mysterious character named Tarnished shows up and saves them, and they came to live with him in the Lands Between. ---- Copyright: © 2016-2017 HanbitSoft Co., Ltd. Master of the 'Side Eye' artstyle by @Pelapas. Music by @Pleb_Fae ENJOYING THE GAME?? THEN MAYBE YOU'LL WANNA JOIN THE THUNDER. ----- It's time for those who don't know the story yet to begin, and it's time for those who love story to read on. The Lands Between have now become the battleground of the Power of Oblivion, where the Emotions are battling alongside the Emotions, and where heroes and villains alike have begun to appear. In addition, the new age of magic and technology has begun to spread, and the Elden have begun to shed their archaic ways. To protect these changes, the Emotions are called forth by the Goddess of Fate to be the heroes who purge the elements of bad Emotions and build new temples to nourish the land. These temples are known as Elden Rings. ===== THE 3 RULES OF BIRTH OF MYTH #1 A Saga Greatly Recounted In the Lands Between, there is a legend of a god who is tired of the Emotions. She became divided into several personalities, and she created a time and place where a power called the Necroverse began. ... The long existence of the Elden Rings will be greatly recalled in the lands between. The Elden Rings are a spiritual bond that allows us to evolve into a society that uses the spirit of the Goddess as our source of power. #2 The Emotions Cannot Be Opposed The Emotions in the Lands Between cannot be opposed by the non-Emotions, and any attempts to suppress or oppose them will result in serious consequences. #3 The Elden Rings are the Emotions' Guardians --- *PLEASE READ* When you create the account, you can change your character's gender, hair color, and hair length. You have received the blessing of the First and make haste to the Elden City, where the Elden Ring is located. CHARACTER ELDEN LORD I am the first of the Elden Ring and my job is to defend you against evil while en route to the Elden City. CHARACTER DESIGN Your character will have a class/ race/gender, and a personal name. Based on the gender and class, you can choose from three of the five following classes: Male Classes Knight, Mage, Monk, Warrior, Rogue Female Classes Knight, Mage, Priest, Rogue, Valkyrie Additional options are open based on the race. ...The character's race is determined randomly, so it may be different from the one shown in the character design. CLASS ELDEN LORDS Starting the game as a Class Lord means that your goal is to study the class at your Elden City. Class Lords can freely advance their class education. CLASS SPECIAL TALENTS You can obtain a special talent from class lords. When you advance the class, you can unlock the talent. If you obtain the associated class talent, the talent will be acquired based on the class of the class lord. For example, if a female player's character is an advancing level knight, the female knight can obtain the corresponding class talent, but not vice versa. In addition to the class talent, each class lord has its own weapon style and armor style. You can enhance your weapons and armor, allowing you to more easily obtain class talents. Class Lord Skill Specialties You can learn skills based on the selected class lord at your Elden City. When you learn a skill, you can choose a specialty. Class Lord Specialty Learning this specialty will allow you to learn a specialty skill that you can utilize when you use the skill. Mage Specialty Mages are skilled in the use of magic and specialize in magic. Mage Phrases for direct access to the skill tree. Strong 1 Brave 1 Magician 1 Magic 1 ...These are special phrases that must be spoken during the class lord conversation with each class lord. The Mage specialty is learned through the class lord conversation with the Mage class lord.

What's new in Elden Ring:

With this release, we added a 'Server' dropdown menu in the 'Presence' and 'Invite' tab of the account settings. 9.03 Patch Notes The patch notes have been added to the complete release notes in the sidebar. Please note that some text is abbreviated as a result of this. FIX: This will fix an issue where locked guild members could walk through a door another guild member is casting a skill. FIX: Forced registration of skype as a work around to a bug on skype in previous major releases. FIX: Damage from Fire Shield has been changed to its correct damage output. Fire Shield was sometimes being used as a third hitting skill when it was a second hitting skill. FIX: Cyst generation items and Skill Gems has been removed. Items are still created but without their benefits.Q: .net DataGridView - Current row selected in Column and cell edit mode I got some help on another problem and I hope it is a 'tightly related' issue. So, I have a DataGridView which contains 3 columns (Heading, Time, Amount), being the first row selected at the beginning of the form. What I want to do is, after some basic data manipulations like editing Amount, row has to be selected at which that happened. For example: in case of clicking Amount line on top row, datagrid would need to display only that row being currently active or with initial focus (previously selected row). Unfortunately, I have no idea how to do this, without having to move to the whole row. Thank you! A: DataGridView.ItemSelectionChanged(...) is what to use to select the current row. Celebrity chef Joel Artman has lost the $10 million contract to build and operate a third casino in Atlantic City and has been banned from the New Jersey gambling industry for life. Artman, the creator of NYC's renowned restaurant Joel's, was named the third of three finalists, July 19, to take over as chairman of the board of directors at the Tropicana Atlantic City. Artman was not among the final two finalists chosen by a review panel of gaming industry experts. Artman had proposed a $750 million, three-casino gambling complex with 500 gaming tables and 3,000 slot machines in the city that has lost $3.5 billion in its last decade of operation. His Tropicana proposal included a new stadium that would be used as a sports casino, concert venue and a venue for community activities. According to the decision, Artman faced heightened criticism for his life of scandal, including bankruptcy, domestic violence and sexual harassment allegations. In October, the Garden State Appeal's casino licensing board unanimously rejected his application, calling his track record a "disaster" and his plan "not viable." "All three of the finalist candidates failed in every way possible. However, I understand and respect the [gaming] board's determination," Artman said in a statement Thursday. The board also rejected Tropicana's casino application, allowing the application of former Tropicana CEO Neil Bluhm and Monmouth Casino president Valerie Walker to proceed.Q: Paste strings into individual columns of Excel? I have a few strings that I want to paste into a Word document. I copy those strings into Excel and then I want to paste them one at a time into a different column, going down the column. Is this possible to do? Thanks! A: To copy a block of text and paste it into another cell, right-click on the cell, and select Paste Special - Text. To copy the text from a list of cells, go to your desired cell, click on the arrow in the top-right corner, select cell contents from the dropdown menu, and click OK. @CR64[]].
